8                   UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9                   WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10                  AT TACOMA

11                 DAWN MARIE KORTER et al,

12                  Plaintiff,

13                  v.

14                  CITY OF LAKEWOOD et al.,

15                  Defendant.

16                  CASE NO. 3:22-cv-05647-DGE
17                  ORDER AFTER DISCOVERY
18                  DISPUTE (DKT. NO. 15) HEARING

19                  The following is a summary of the Court's rulings on the parties' discovery disputes
20                  outlined in the January 25, 2024 Joint Status Report. (Dkt. No. 15.) For the reasons stated
21                  during the January 31, 2024 hearing, the Court ORDERS as follows:

- 22                  1. Defendant City of Lakewood shall confirm it has produced all Mr. Wiley's mental 23                  health records in its possession. Upon confirmation, it shall send Plaintiffs any 24                  remaining records, if any, and certify it has completed a thorough search and provided all relevant records.

- Plaintiffs may question non-peer counselor witnesses about Mr. Wiley's mental health, subject to a protection order. This does not include conversations Mr. Wiley and Sgt. Mark Eakes had in Mr. Eakes' capacity as a peer counselor. If the parties believe the current Protective Order (Dkt. No. 14) requires modification, the parties shall file a proposed protective order, with a red-lined copy of any changes from the Court's model protective order, by February 12, 2024.

3. Should Plaintiffs find it necessary, the Court authorizes them to file their motion to compel no later than February 12, 2024<sup>1</sup>:

Dated this 1st day of February 2024.
